

The Yacht Club is located on the beautiful of Chaopraya River, the major river that runs through the city of Bangkok. The four story building will house all the necessary functions of the yachtsman. It will provide them with the old traditional atmosphere of the past. The design of the building is simple but elegant. It also reflects the traditional style of the old buildings along the river.

...reflects the traditional style of the old building along the river.

